WELCOME FROM GRETCHEN FEYER

Welcome to the start of our 17th season of Broadway San Jose! There's something wonderful about a season opener — that first hush before the lights come up, the anticipation buzzing through the theater, the sense that anything is possible. This year, we're calling our season a Season of Stories, and we couldn't imagine a better way to begin it than with a tale that has captured hearts for generations: DISNEY'S BEAUTY AND THE BEAST.

It belongs to all of us. It's the story you grew up with, the one you may have told your children, the one that reminds us that stories are how we pass down what matters — courage, curiosity, and the belief that people can change. Over the coming months, we'll bring you a season of stories like this one: different worlds, different voices, all worth telling.

Whether this is your first Broadway San Jose show or your fiftieth, whether you're introducing a child to live theater for the first time or returning to a story you've loved since childhood, tonight is for you. Broadway San Jose exists because of patrons like you. Your support doesn't just bring these productions to our stage — it sustains an entire ecosystem of arts, community engagement, and local jobs that make San Jose a richer, more vibrant place to live. Thank you for being part of that story.

So, settle in, silence your phones, and get ready to fall in love with a tale as old as time — the first of many stories we can't wait to share with you this season.

Enjoy the show.

Woolverton also wrote the Book for Elton John and Tim Rice’s Musical Aida which ran for five years at the Palace. Woolverton’s script for Alice in Wonderland (2010), directed by Tim Burton and starring Johnny Depp, grossed over one billion dollars and she became the first female screenwriter with a sole credit on a billion-dollar film. HOWARD ASHMAN (Lyricist) is best known as the pivotal creative mind behind The Little Mermaid, Aladdin and Beauty and the Beast (which is dedicated to “Our friend, Howard Ashman, who gave a Mermaid her voice and a Beast his soul...”). Ashman’s first love was theatre. He was a founder of Off Off-Broadway’s renowned WPA Theatre, where he conceived, wrote and directed the classic musical Little Shop of Horrors as well as God Bless You, Mr. Rosewater (both music by Alan Menken). A new cast recording of Rosewater is available from Sh-K-Boom records. In 1986, Ashman wrote and directed the Broadway musical Smile (music by Marvin Hamlisch). Lamented as a lost treasure of the 1980’s theatre scene, Smile remains popular on high school and college campuses. A documentary about Ashman’s life titled HOWARD has received great acclaim for its sensitive portrayal of the man and the artist. Howard Ashman died in 1991 from complications of AIDS. For more information, please visit howardashman.com.

TIM RICE (Lyricist) has been writing lyrics for musical theatre and related enterprises for nearly 50 years. He has won numerous awards along the way, usually for the wrong things or for simply turning up.

MATT WEST (Director & Choreographer) returns to Beauty and the Beast, having choreographed the original 1994 Broadway production (Drama-Logue Award; Olivier nomination, Drama Desk nomination, Outer Critics Circle nomination), winner of the 1998 Olivier Award for Best New Musical. West has directed and choreographed the reimaged productions of Beauty and the Beast in the UK and Ireland, Australia, and Singapore. Broadway: Lestat (Palace Theatre). Other: Trolls Live! (Cirque du Soleil). As a performer, West played Bobby on Broadway in A Chorus Line and reprised the role in Sir Richard Attenborough’s 1985 film adaptation. Earlier credits include Radio City Music Hall, the Lido de Paris at the Stardust Hotel, and the national tours of Hello,
