WELCOME FROM GRETCHEN FEYER

Our Season of Stories continues with one of the most beloved and enduring stage tales: PHANTOM OF THE OPERA. There are shows that entertain us, and then there are shows that haunt us in the very best way. Tonight, as the chandelier rises and that first unmistakable chord fills the theater, I hope you feel the same shiver of anticipation that has drawn audiences into this story for nearly forty years. Thank you for being here. Whether it's your first visit beneath the Paris Opera House or your fifth, your presence tonight truly brings this season and this theater to life.

A show like this doesn't happen in isolation, and neither does a great night out. Before or after the curtain, we hope you'll consider supporting the local restaurants and businesses that make downtown San Jose such a special place to spend an evening; they're as much a part of our community's story as the one unfolding on stage. And to our community partners, whose generosity and belief in the power of live theater help make nights like this possible: thank you.

Welcome back to Broadway San Jose. Our story continues with you.

Warmly,

Gretchen Feyer
General Manager

ANDREW LLOYD WEBBER (Composer/Book/Co-Orchestrator) has composed the scores of some of the world's most famous musicals. His shows have run continuously in London's West End for 50 years and ran for 43 uninterrupted years on Broadway. When the original Sunset Boulevard joined School of Rock, CATS, and Phantom of the Opera he equaled Rodgers & Hammerstein's record of four shows running simultaneously on Broadway. He is one of the select group of artists with EGOT status, having received Emmy, Grammy, Oscar, and Tony Awards. Lloyd Webber owns six London theatres including the iconic London Palladium and Theatre Royal Drury Lane. Reopened in July 2021, the latter was completely restored and renovated at a cost of over £60 million. This was one of the biggest projects ever undertaken by a private theatre owner in recent times. His mantra is that every penny of profit made from his theatres is ploughed back into the buildings for their conservation and development. Lloyd Webber is passionate about the importance of musical education and diversity in the arts. Andrew Lloyd Webber Foundation provides 30 performing arts scholarships every year for talented students with financial need and supports a range of projects such as the Music In Secondary School Trust (MiSST). In academic year September 2025 - 2026, 14,885 children are being given free musical tuition and instruments as part of MiSST's Andrew Lloyd Webber Program. The Foundation also commissions research into diversity in theatre. Andrew Lloyd Webber has composed music for globally significant moments. Most recently, he was asked to compose "Make a Joyful Noise", the anthem for the Coronation of King Charles III. Andrew Lloyd Webber was knighted in 1992, created an honorary life peer in 1997, and made a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter by King Charles III in 2024. He is the only person in the arts ever granted this personal honor by a monarch.

CHARLES HART (Lyrics) writes words for music. Opera includes Marx in London (Jonathan Dove, Stadttheater Bonn) and Benvenuto Cellini (Hector Berlioz, English National Opera). Musicals include Bend It Like Beckham (Howard Goodall, Phoenix Theatre London) and Aspects of Love (Andrew Lloyd Webber, Prince of Wales Theatre London). Songs include "Seventeen" (Claude-Michel Schönberg, sung by Russell Watson) and "Goodbye for Now" (Richard Rodney Bennett, sung by Claire Martin). He has also provided both words and music for television comedies "Watching" (sung by Emma Wray) and "Split Ends" (sung by Anita Dobson), and a song cycle for BBC Radio, "Love-Songs" (sung by Marie-Louise Clark).

WHO'S WHO

RICHARD STILGOE (Book and Additional Lyrics) wrote lyrics for Cats, Starlight Express and Phantom and music and lyrics for Bodywork, Brilliant the Dinosaur and Orpheus the Mythical. His broadcasting work has earned him the New York Radio Festival Gold Award, three Monaco Festival Prizes and the Prix Italia. In 1997, he founded the Orpheus Centre in Surrey, where young disabled people prepare for independent living through a series of performing arts courses. In 1998, he was awarded the OBE. He was knighted in June 2012 for charitable service through the Alchemy Foundation. He owns and drives a JCB and has five children and 13 grandchildren.

CAMERON MACKINTOSH (Producer). With Les Misérables, Phantom of the Opera, Miss Saigon, Oliver!, Mary Poppins (co-produced with Disney) and Hamilton all playing in the UK and many other parts of the world, Cameron remains the world's most prolific producer of musicals. His other international original productions include Cats, Little Shop of Horrors and the three musical revues he created with Stephen Sondheim: Side by Side by Sondheim, Putting it Together and most recently, Old Friends. Since he started as a producer nearly 60 years ago in 1967, Cameron has produced hundreds of stage productions as well as the 2012 Oscar Award winning movie of Les Misérables. He is the owner of Music Theatre International, one of the world's oldest and largest libraries of secondary rights of many of the greatest musicals ever written. Cameron owns and operates eight historic London theatres which have all been spectacularly rebuilt and refurbished for the 21st century. Cameron was knighted in 1996 and is the first British producer to be elected to Broadway's Theater Hall of Fame.

LW ENTERTAINMENT (Producer) manages Andrew Lloyd Webber's body of work all over the world. The business partners with industry-leading creative teams, producers, and organizations deliver world-class experiences and products across multiple entertainment formats — from theatrical productions, immersive experiences and music to film, publishing and consumer products. Evolving from Andrew Lloyd Webber's Really Useful Group, LW Entertainment has musical theatre at its heart. It develops brand and franchise strategies for some of the world's most celebrated titles, including Phantom of the Opera, Cats, Jesus Christ Superstar, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Evita, Sunset Boulevard and Starlight Express. Since 1977, the business has brought Andrew Lloyd Webber's work to hundreds of millions of people worldwide. Today, LW Entertainment continues that legacy, driven by a passion for creating innovative and inspiring entertainment through powerful partnerships, creative collaborations, and strategic brand development that ensures these works resonate with audiences for generations to come. www.lwentertainment.com

Yours Truly, Mary Anne is a stationery and gift store in downtown San Jose that features mental health reminders and local AAPI artists to help guide your inner and outer world journey.

Founded by fellow human, artist, and social worker, Mary Anne Batayola (and SJSU alumni, go Spartans!), the retail space brings mental health to the forefront through relatable stickers and stationery, to cozy apparel and gifts. The hope is to provide a space to feel seen and help people feel less alone in what they are going through as we navigate the uncertainties of the world.
